

The Judges Have Spoken, and the Winner of the Product of Excellence Award is Kugler-Womako's EcoBinder Book!

For over three decades, the Binding Industries Association's annual Product of Excellence awards recognized outstanding examples of craftsmanship. Winning this prestigious award is considered among many to be the pinnacle of success in the binding industry. Graphic finishers, trade binderies and custom loose leaf manufacturers entering the contest are some of the best in the world and winning this award truly is an honor.

Kugler Womako's EcoBinder Book takes another step into the spotlight as it once again claims the throne. After 2010 PrintStars award in Category Technology Processing and 2013 Promotional Gift Award in category Communicative Product, Kugler-Womako's EcoBinder Book wins the BIA Product of Excellence Award in the category "Product Design".

The award was received at the Premier Print Awards Gala Featuring The InterTech Technology Awards, Sunday, September 13, 2015, at the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile, held in conjunction with GRAPH EXPO 15, in Chicago, IL.
